Burning Issues

- Jorj Cheko: Him and several other senators would like to make it a burning issue for the senators to be proactive and have a study session.
- Bobo Teo: Anyone who rents out equipment, please turn it in time. There might be a late fee if you don't.
- Mayra Miranda: Yesterday D&E had an event. Really encourages senators to get involved with them. For clean up, there was only roughly one senator around to help.
- Keith Hubbard: This is going the last time that water bottles will be passed out to the senate, audience will get them first. These are for the students. These bottles are made with plant resin.
- Omar Ali: please stop using the senate office as a storage facility.
- Wayne Spalding: please stop using the office printer to print your homework. We're low on paper.
- Jonathan Mai: Let's practice some healthy habits. Wash your hands. Stay clean.
- April Seo: So the office looks semi-clean right now so let's keep it that way.
- Jorj Cheko: Please don't be a dictator and be reasonable.
- Marlo Custodio: Look at the bigger picture and the students that we support. Don't focus on the petty battles that start between individuals in the office.
- Mo Shirazi: Feels like there is a lot of disrespect going on in the office right now.
- Omar Ali: This week saw two of our VPs mistreat one of our senators. Feels the VPs should hold themselves to a higher standard than the senators.
