DIVISION AND AREA REPS (VOTING MEMBERS)

Part-Time Faculty Mary Donahue	Assembly Bill 1856 sailed through both chambers of the state legislature, but unfortunately failed (again) to get the approval of the Governor. The Faculty Association of California Community Colleges reports: "Governor Newsom vetoed AB 1856 (Medina), a bill to allow part-time faculty to work up to 80 - 85 percent of full-time faculty. This was the third iteration of this bill. A previous version was vetoed on the basis of potential health care costs, which were addressed in the 2021 - 22 budget by appropriating $200 million to part-time faculty healthcare. Nevertheless, Governor Newsom's veto message again cited cost as the justification for his veto."
