

Asian Pacific American Heritage Month 2002

Planning Committee Members:

Staff Chairs: Rowena Tomaneng Matsunari and Tracy Chung

Betty Duong	Dang Le
Kathy Duong	Les Leonardo
Michael Chang	Huong Nguyen
Yu-Ting Chen	Renato Tuazon
Tom Izu	Jerrick Woo
Duane Kubo	Ladonna Yumori-Kaku

De Anza College Program Sponsors:

The De Anza Associated Student Body (DASB)
The Asian Pacific American Staff Association (APASA)
The Asian Pacific American Students for Leadership (APASL)
Students for Justice
The Multicultural Staff Association (MSA)
The California History Center (CHC)
The Intercultural/International Studies Division
Women's Studies
The Office of Diversity
The Diversity Leadership Training Project
The Visiting Speakers Series

All Events are Free, Wheelchair Accessible, and Open to the Public.

Sign Language interpretation available upon request:
(408) 864-8887.

For additional information, please contact Rowena Tomaneng
Matsunari (408) 864-8286 or Tracy Chung (408) 864- 8234

De Anza College
Asian Pacific American Heritage Month
May 13-25, 2002

Asian American Youth and Social Justice Movements: Then and Now

Program Schedule

Monday, May 13th

APAHM Kick-Off with Student Clubs
Campus Patio, 12:00-1:00 p.m.

APASA Welcome Reception

An opportunity for students and staff to recognize the students who will receive the Asian Pacific Americans Staff Association Scholarship and also welcome the Asian Pacific American staff and newly tenured faculty.
California History Center, 2:30 p.m.-3:30 p.m.

Tuesday, May 14th

Teach-In: Asian American/ Pacific Islander History and Politics

De Anza faculty Duane Kubo, Michael Chang, and Rowena Tomaneng Matsunari will speak on the Asian American Movement, Asian Americans and Political Empowerment, and Asian American Student Activism Today.
Conference Room B, Hinson Campus Center, 9:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m.

Wednesday, May 15th

SAMAHAN, the De Anza Pilipino American Club, will discuss Pilipino/Asian stereotypes in the Media.
Student Council Chambers, Hinson Campus Center, 10:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m.

Thursday, May 16th

Asian Week, the bay Area's voice of the Asian American/Pacific Community, presents a showcase of up-coming Asian Pacific American bands in the Northern California area.
Campus Center Patio, 12:00 p.m.-1:00 p.m.

Visiting Speakers Series, Raj Jayadev, writer and activist organizing among youth and immigrant workers, will speak on the topic, "Silicon Valley, Debugged: Organizing Workers in Silicon Valley."

Showing of film, "Secrets of Silicon Valley" precedes lecture
1:00 p.m. film showing, 2:00 p.m. - 3:30 p.m. lecture and discussion
Conference Room A & B, Hinson Campus Center

Program Schedule

Monday, May 20th

"The Fall of the I-Hotel"—a film by Curtis Choy
Introduction by Duane Kubo, Dean of International/ Intercultural Studies.
A winner of numerous awards, this film documents the battle to save a "Manilatown" residential hotel in San Francisco. Viewing of CHC's current exhibit, "The Whole World's Watching: Peace and Social Justice Movements of the 1960s and 1970s immediately following film.
California History Center, 1:30 p.m.-3:30 p.m.

Tuesday, May 21st

Working with Asian/Asian American Students

De Anza Faculty, Staff, and Students discuss campus and classroom issues.
Conference Room B, Hinson Campus Center, 12:30 p.m.- 1:30 p.m.

Wednesday, May 22nd

Storyteller Canyon Sam will share stories with children.
Child Development Center, 10:30 a.m.-12 noon

hereandnow, the compelling Asian American Theater Company will perform stories of Asian America/Pacific Islanders.
Fireside Room, Hinson Campus Center, 7:30 p.m.-9 p.m.

Thursday, May 23rd

Philip Vera Cruz Justice Project Pilipino Culture Presentation, followed by Teach-In on Contemporary Pilipino Issues, including the rights of Airport Screeners and U.S. intervention in the Philippines.
Campus Center Patio, 12:00-3:00 p.m.

Saturday, May 25th

Rocking the Boat: Emergence of an APA Youth

The Asian Pacific American Students for Leadership hosts De Anza College's first Asian Pacific American Student Empowerment Conference.
Hinson Campus Center, 8:30 a.m.-4:00 p.m.