Irene. I'm afraid your feet can't partake in the patriot spirit of the "plaid"- for I have found none in town as yet. Maybe able to get some later. Did you see in the paper Leslie Hammond is to be married Aug 5? The house we were looking at is taken now. So we are looking at some others. How are you both getting along?

Greetings from Los Gatos, California.—DAM ON LOS GATOS CREEK.

Boulder the 17th
Dear Lottie:

I just arrived in this burg at 5.30 after a very lumpy trip. Some places its like riding over the boulders in the bottom of a creek. The stretch just before Boulder was so muddy that I had to get out or else we would have got stuck. Sometimes the wheels sank so deep that the mud reached the axle.

I never saw or could even imagine the like. Don't like this place, too damp & cold & heavy. I'll have my eye peeled for bed bugs to night.
