

Employee Survey:

Standard III.C.1 – 76% (110) of respondents stated they strongly agree/agree that sufficient training in the use of technology (hardware and software) is provided to effectively carry out work responsibilities, including supporting student learning, while 20% (29) strongly disagree/disagree.

Student Survey: 65% (557) of respondents stated their experience at this college contributed to their ability to use computing and information technology very much/quite a bit, while 27% (238) some/very little.

Student Survey - Standard II.B.1. - 93% (797) of respondents stated they strongly agree/agree the college supports learning by having services such as the library collections, tutoring, counseling learning centers, and computer labs available for student use, while 4% (33) strongly disagree/disagree.

Complete accreditation

surveys: <http://deanza.edu/accreditation/2017/index.html>